Drawings and Decorations

The cover design for this catalog is the work of George F. Hubbard, instructor in drawing. The pen and ink drawings illustrating life about and within the school, and the poster stamp on page 39 were drawn by juniors in the Practical Arts department under the direction, and with the assistance of Willis B. Anthony, director. The poster stamp on the back cover was designed by Sarah E. Lamprey, instructor in practical arts for girls.

The drawings of statues used with the initial letters are from casts in the Fitchburg Normal School. The three used were chosen because they illustrate phases of the work of the school that are considered of particular importance. St. George typifies poise and culture. The statue representing him is one of the finest products of Greek civilization, and of the Greek ideal. He also typifies aspiration, the striving of the human will after even the unattainable.

“Infinity firing the frail and finite.”

Abraham Lincoln knew and loved the humble people, the people usually lacking in poise and culture. He killed the dragon that bound man with the idea that common toil and labor were degrading and work fit only for slaves. He stands for the dignity of labor and the work of the common people, and that there are some things even more important than poise and culture.

The poet sings, “Knowledge comes, and wisdom lingers.” Many an institution imparts knowledge which is never assimilated into wisdom. The proper combination in feeling, thinking, and doing of the ideals represented by St. George and by Abraham Lincoln, should result in wisdom, typified by Minerva, the Goddess of struggle, the wisdom which comes from the struggle for the attainment of higher things.

The Fitchburg Normal School aims to develop a sympathetic understanding of surrounding life, a desire and a power to appreciate the beautiful and to replace ugliness with refinement, and to struggle and search for truth and for the development of the individual and the race.

Equipment

THE Fitchburg State Normal School was opened in 1895 with four teachers and forty-six pupils in a rented building. In 1916 there are thirty teachers, four hundred normal school students, and seven hundred and sixty-five children, with buildings and grounds worth nearly half a million dollars. The school has graduated nine hundred and fifty from the Elementary Department, two hundred and fifty-nine from the Advanced Department, nineteen from the Kindergarten Department, forty-four from the Practical Arts Department for young men. Ten have received diplomas for the completion of two years' special work, and two hundred and ten have received certificates for one year's work.

Fitchburg, Mass., is a city of nearly forty thousand inhabitants, beautifully situated among the hills between Mt. Monadnock and Mt. Wachusett. Its pure air and water and excellent drainage rank it among the most healthful of New England cities. It has a fine public library and art museum.

The normal school grounds are over fifteen acres in extent, including an athletic field, tennis courts, and school gardens. The work is carried on in eight buildings.

Normal Hall, the main building, contains forty rooms, including a gymnasium with dressing rooms and shower baths, and a study hall.

The boarding halls are heated by steam and lighted by electricity. In Miller Hall, the rooms are arranged in suites. Palmer Hall, opened in September, 1913, contains single rooms and rooms for two. A night watchman is employed. To secure room, either in Miller Hall or in Palmer Hall, an early application is necessary. Rooms are reserved in order of application upon deposit of four dollars with the clerk of the school. No room will be reserved until this deposit is made, which will be credited for the first week's board in the fall, but will not be refunded in case a student decides not to enter. No room will be held for a student after the opening of the school in the fall for longer than two weeks, for which payment must be made in advance.

The Edgerly School is a twelve room building for grades one to six and is used for observation and practice.

The Practical Arts School is a building for grades seven and eight, containing twelve school rooms and various shops. In this building is the Assembly Hall, seating seven hundred. It is provided with a large stage and dressing rooms, and equipped for moving pictures.

The Day Street School is a twelve room building for grades one to six.

The Highland Avenue School is a four room building for grades one to three.

The reference library contains nearly eight thousand volumes, besides many reports and textbooks. The leading periodicals are found in the reading room.

The Hastings Greenhouse, one of the finest in the state, is now available for the use of the students in connection with various forms of agricultural work.

In June, 1906, an alumni loan fund was founded. This is increased yearly by contributions from the alumni. Subscriptions from others also will be gladly received. To students needing help, amounts not exceeding one hundred dollars annually will be loaned, such amounts to be repaid with interest after graduation.

Work is provided for students who must earn part of their expenses. Part of the expense of this work is met from the fund for State Aid which is distributed semi-annually to deserving students whose homes are not in Fitchburg. Application for work under this fund should be made in writing to the principal. There is also opportunity for work in the dormitory whereby a number of young women earn all of their expenses by spending three years on the two years' course. Young men have opportunity to do janitor work and make repairs around the buildings, thereby earning part of their expenses.

Tuition is free to all residents of Massachusetts. Non-residents of the State are required to pay at the beginning of each half-year session the sum of twenty-five dollars.

Season tickets, at greatly reduced rates, may be obtained from any of the railroads entering Fitchburg.

For catalogs, specimen examination questions for admission, and such additional information as may be sought, address the principal at Fitchburg.

Courses

V.A.M.

P.A.D

ORMAL students are granted diplomas in the following departments:

The Elementary Department of two years fits for teaching in grades one to six.

The Advanced Department for Intermediate School teachers is four years in length, one year of which is spent in teaching on salary. It fits for teaching in grades seven and eight.

The Practical Arts Department of three years is open only to young men. It fits teachers for manual training and various forms of industrial work.

Normal school or college graduates, or persons with not less than three years' satisfactory experience in teaching, will be admitted to normal schools with advanced standing. These may, with the approval of the principal, elect sufficient courses from the regular curricula to constitute a year's work, for which a certificate, or, with the approval of the Board of Education, a diploma will be granted.

Concerts, recitals, plays, and lectures occur at frequent intervals, and are usually free to all normal students. At the assembly brief addresses are given by members of the faculty and by visitors to the school. The old-fashioned "speaking of pieces" often forms a part of the exercises.

The Practical Arts Department is to prepare men to teach the work classed under practical arts, industrial arts and manual training to boys in intermediate and high schools.

The time required by those who have not had trade education is three school years of forty weeks each. At present the work of this department can be completed in two years and three summer terms of eight weeks each. Previous trade experience in woodworking, painting, woodfinishing, printing, bookbinding, drafting and other approved trades may shorten the time required to two years, or two years and one or two summer terms, according to the amount and quality of the previous experience. In some cases journeymen, particularly from any of the above trades, are permitted to take a one year's course as special students.

Applicants for admission must meet one of the following requirements:

A. Four years successful work at an approved high school, or pass the entrance examinations for the elementary course.

B. Four years successful work at an approved trade.

C. An equivalent combination of A and B.

Note: All candidates must furnish references as to work and character.

Admission

R.W.J.

P.A.D.

THE candidate for admission to a Massachusetts State Normal school as a regular student must have attained the age of seventeen years if a man, and sixteen years if a woman, on or before the first day of September in the year in which he seeks admission; must be free from diseases or infirmities, or other defects which would unfit him for the office of teacher; must present a certificate of good moral character; and must present evidence of graduation from a high school or equivalent preparation, and, in addition, offer such satisfactory evidence of scholarship as may be required by the regulations of the Board. He must submit detailed records of scholarship from the principal of the high school or other school in which preparation has been made, showing the amount of time given to individual subjects and the grades therein, and such additional evidence of qualifications for the calling of teacher as may be defined in the regulations of the Board relating to normal schools.

II A candidate for admission as a regular student to a general department must offer satisfactory evidence of preparation in the subjects listed under "A," "B," and "C," amounting to 15 units, 10 of which units however, must be in subjects under "A" and "B," and secured either by examination or certification. (Applicants for admission to the Practical Arts Department may substitute evidence of practical experience in some industrial employment in whole or in part for the above.)

A unit represents a year's study in any subject in a secondary school, constituting approximately one quarter of a full year's work.

(A) Prescribed subjects. Three units.

1 English literature and composition, 3 units.

(B) Elective subjects. At least 7 units from the following subjects:

- |   |           |   |   |   |   |   |                  |
|---|-----------|---|---|---|---|---|------------------|

18	Bookkeeping, . . . . .	1 unit.
19	Commercial geography, . . . . .	$\frac{1}{2}$ or 1 unit.
20	Arithmetic, . . . . .	$\frac{1}{2}$ or 1 unit.

*History includes Ancient, Mediaeval and Modern; English History, American History and Civics, and Current Events.

For the present, the topics included within the foregoing subjects will be such as are usually accepted by the Massachusetts colleges for entrance. The outlines submitted by the College Entrance Examination Board (Sub-station 84, New York City) will be found suggestive by high schools.

(C) Additional Subjects. At least 5 units from any of the foregoing subjects, or from other subjects approved by the high school towards the diploma of graduation of the applicant. Work in any subjects approved for graduation, in addition to that for which credit is secured by examination or certification, may count towards these units.

III (A) Examinations. Each applicant for admission, unless exempted by the provisions of Sections IV. and V. must pass entrance examinations in the subjects as required under "A" and "B." Examinations in these subjects will be held at each of the normal schools in June and September of each year. Candidates applying for admission by examination must present credentials or certificates from their schools to cover the requirements under "C," and will not be given examinations in these subjects. Persons not able to present these credentials must obtain credit for 15 units by examination in the subjects listed under "A" and "B."

(B) Division of Examinations. A candidate for admission to a normal school may take all of the examinations at once, or divide them between June and September. A candidate will receive permanent credit for any units secured by examination or certification.

IV Admission on certificate. A graduate of a public high school approved by the Board of Education for purposes of certification to a state normal school may be exempted by the principal of the normal school from examination in any of the subjects under "A" and "B" in which the principal of the high school shall certify that the applicant is entitled to certification in accordance with standards as defined by the Board of Education.

Credits secured by any candidate from the Board of Regents of the State of New York, or for admission to any college in the New England College Entrance Certificate Board, either by examination or certification, or in the examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board, shall be accepted towards the total of 10 units under "A" and "B." In addition to the units granted by certification candidates must present credentials for subjects under "C."

V Admission as special students; (a) When in any normal school, or in any department therein, the number of students entered as regular students and as advanced students at the opening of any school year is below the maximum number for which the school has accommodations, the Commissioner may authorize the admission as a special student of an applicant who, being otherwise qualified, and who, having taken the entrance examinations, has failed to meet the full requirements provided in the regulations of the Board, but who, nevertheless, is recommended by the principal of the normal school as, in his estimation, qualified to become a teacher. Such a special student shall be given regular standing only when he shall have satisfied all admission requirements, and when his work in the school, in the estimation of the principal, justifies such standing. The principal of the normal school shall report annually in October to the Commissioner as to all special students. Certificates may be granted to special students in accordance with regulations approved by the Board.

(b) When in any normal school, or in any course therein, the number of students entered as regular students, as advanced students and as special students as defined in (a) at the opening of any school year is below the maximum number for which the school has accommodations, the Commissioner may, subject to such special regulations as may be approved by the Board, authorize the admission to any class as a special student, on the recommendation of the principal, of a person possessing special or exceptional qualifications for the work of such class. Such special student shall not be considered a candidate for a diploma until he shall have qualified as a regular student, but may, on the satisfactory completion of the work of the department, be granted a certificate to that effect by the Board. The principal of the normal school shall report annually in October to the Commissioner as to all special students in the school under the provisions of this section.

VI Admission as advanced students. A graduate of a normal school or of a college, or any person with not less than three years' satisfactory experience in teaching, may be admitted as a regular or as an advanced student of any department under such regulations as may be approved by the Board.

Admission to Practical Arts Department

Candidates for admission to the practical arts department must meet one of the following requirements:

(a) Admission by certification or examination as a regular student to a general department in a normal school.

(b) Graduation from an elementary school, and in addition not less than four years' practical experience in industrial employment to be approved by the principal of the normal school.

(c) An equivalent combination of (a) and (b.)

The foregoing requirements for admission to Massachusetts Normal Schools are based upon the two following principles:

1 The only subject necessarily presupposed as a basis for normal school work is English. This is required of all candidates for admission. The entrance examination in English is in two parts,—one part dealing with English expression and the other dealing with English literature.

2 In order to permit the variation in program in different high schools and the variation of curricula of different pupils in the same school, and also to allow for the development of new subjects, a "free margin" of substantially one-half of the entire high school program is allowed.
